Adam Eatroff
DVM, DACVIM (SAIM)

Internal Medicine / Nephrology & Dialysis
ACCESS | Los Angeles

Dr. Adam Eatroff is a Tampa, Florida native with ties to Ann Arbor, Michigan and Ithaca, New York.

Board certified and proficient in all fields of small animal internal medicine, Dr. Eatroff's professional interests include nephrology and hemodialysis. He has authored many journal articles and textbook chapters, in addition to having lectured nationally on topics including kidney disease and hemodialysis.

Dr. Eatroff, a graduate from the College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell University in 2006, completed an internship in small animal medicine and surgery at Oradell Animal Hospital in Paramus, NJ in 2007, and a residency in small animal internal medicine at Cornell University in 2010. He then trained as the Renal Medicine/Hemodialysis Fellow at the Animal Medical Center in New York, NY.

Dr. Eatroff comes to us from a position as a senior clinician at a large referral hospital in New York, NY, where he recently founded and developed that hospital's first hemodialysis unit.

In his spare time he enjoys cheering on his University of Michigan Wolverines (Go Blue!) and exploring the city with his family.
